Tommie Brown Hardwick, Assistant United States Attorney, and Jennifer A. Hart, attorney for the defendant, pursuant to the provisions of Rule 11(c)(1)(C), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, as Amended, have, with the authorization of the undersigned, heretofore entered into discussions with a view toward reaching a pretrial conclusion of the charges pending in the Information herein and a Plea Agreement has been reached by said parties in the following respects:

GOVERNMENT'S PROVISIONS

1. Upon entering a plea of guilty by the defendant to the offense charged in Count 1 of the Information, the attorney for the Government will do the following:

- a. The government agrees to dismiss the pending Indictment at sentencing.
- b. The government agrees that a sentence of imprisonment at the low end of the guidelines after the United States Sentencing Guidelines ("guidelines") have been calculated by the United States Probation Officer and approved by the Court, is an appropriate sentence.
- c. The government agrees that there are no other motions for downward departure applicable in this case. If the defendant files a motion for downward departure, or should the Court in its discretion using the United States Sentencing Guidelines as advisory, sentence the defendant below the low end of the guidelines after the calculation has been made by the United States Probation and approved by the Court, this plea agreement will become void.

2. The United States reserves the right to inform the Court and the Probation Department of all facts pertinent to the sentencing process, including all relevant conduct concerning the offense and the defendant's background.

DEFENDANT'S PROVISIONS

3. The defendant agrees to the following:
 - a. To plead guilty to Count 1 of the Information;

b. The defendant agrees that there are no other motions for downward departure applicable in this case. If the defendant files a motion for downward departure, or should the Court in its discretion using the United States Sentencing Guidelines as advisory, sentence the defendant below the low end of the guidelines as calculated by the United States Probation Officer and approval by this Court, this plea agreement will become void. However, the defendant may withdraw her plea if the court rejects the terms of her plea agreement pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C).

DEFENDANT WAIVES APPEAL AND COLLATERAL ATTACK

Understanding that 18 U.S.C. § 3742 provides for appeal by a defendant of the sentence under certain circumstances, defendant expressly waives any and all rights conferred by 18 U.S.C. § 3742 to appeal the sentence on any other ground and waives the right to attack the sentence in any post-conviction proceeding. Except, the defendant does not waive the right to appeal with respect to ineffective assistance of counsel and prosecutorial misconduct.

Further, the parties agree that nothing in this agreement shall affect the United States' right and/or duty to appeal as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b). However, if the United States appeals defendant's sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b), defendant is released from this waiver.

FACTUAL BASIS

4. The defendant understands the nature of the charge to which the plea is offered involves proof as to the following: With respect to Count 1: A search warrant was executed at the residence of Carol and Billy Jarrett on May 28, 2004. Officers found approximately 80 marihuana plants growing outside of the residence close to the house. Officers also found a small quantity of marihuana in Mrs. Jarrett's compact, which was in the night stand drawer on Mrs. Jarrett's side of the bed. Mrs. Jarrett admits that she knowingly and intentionally aided and abetted in growing the marihuana plants. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2, and Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1).

DEFENDANT'S UNDERSTANDING AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

5. The defendant agrees to enter a guilty plea to Count 1 of the Information.

6. The defendant, before entering a plea of guilty to Count 1 of the Information as provided for herein by said Plea Agreement, advises the Court that:

a. The discussions between the attorney for the Government and the attorney for the defendant toward reaching an agreed plea in this case have taken place with the defendant's authorization and consent.

b. The defendant further understands that pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013, said $100 assessment is to be paid by the defendant on the date of sentencing and that if a fine is imposed by the Court at sentencing, the defendant shall meet with a member of the Financial Litigation Section of the United States Attorney's Office on the day of sentencing and complete a written personal financial statement setting forth the defendant's assets and liabilities as of the date of the offense. The defendant will make an honest, good faith effort to pay the said fine as directed by the Financial Litigation Section of the United States Attorney's Office. The defendant further understands that by completing the financial statement, the defendant is representing that it is true and accurate to the best of the defendant's ability, knowledge, and belief.

c. The defendant understands that the defendant has a right to be represented by an attorney at every stage of the proceedings against the defendant herein and is represented by the defendant's undersigned attorney.

d. The defendant understands that the defendant has the right to plead not guilty and has the right to be tried by a jury and, at a trial thereof, has the right to the assistance of counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against the defendant, the right to call witnesses in the defendant's own behalf, and the right not to be compelled to incriminate the defendant, and that if the defendant enters a plea of guilty herein, there will not be a further trial of any kind and that by the entry of such a plea, the defendant waives the right to a trial by jury or to a trial before the Court.

e. The defendant further understands that in entering a plea of guilty herein, the Court may ask questions about the offense to which the plea is entered and further understands that if the defendant answers these questions under oath, on the record, and in the presence of counsel, which questions and answers would be recorded, that the answers may later be used against the defendant in a prosecution for perjury or false statement if the answers are not truthful.

f. The defendant further understands and advises the Court that the plea agreement as set forth herein and the plea to be entered by the defendant as a result thereof is voluntary on the defendant's part and is not the result of any force or threats or of any promises apart from the aforesaid Plea Agreement. The defendant further advises the Court that the Plea Agreement set forth herein is the result of prior discussions between the attorney for the Government and the attorney for the defendant, all conducted with the defendant's authorization, knowledge and consent.

g. The defendant further advises the Court that the defendant's understanding of this Plea Agreement is as set forth in this document.

h. The defendant further advises the Court that the defendant understands that after the entry of the guilty plea, the defendant may withdraw the plea if the Court rejects the plea agreement, pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C). However, if the defendant withdraws her guilty plea, the government will prosecute the defendant on all charges alleged in the ~~Information~~ Indictment.

i. The defendant further advises the Court that the defendant understands and has been advised that evidence of a plea of guilty, later withdrawn or an offer to plead guilty to the crime charged in the Information herein, or of statements made in connection with and relevant to said plea or offer to plead, shall not be admissible in any civil or criminal proceedings against the defendant. However, the defendant does understand that evidence of a statement made in connection with and relevant to a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or an offer to plead guilty to the crimes charged in the Information herein, is admissible in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement when the statement was made by the defendant under oath, on the court record, and in the presence of counsel.

j. The Defendant is satisfied that defense counsel has been competent and effective in representing the defendant.

7. The undersigned attorneys for the Government and for the defendant represent to the Court that the foregoing Plea Agreement is the agreement of the parties that has been reached pursuant to the Plea Agreement procedure provided for in Rule 11(c)(1)(C), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, as amended. The attorney for the defendant further advises the Court that the defendant has been advised of the nature of the charge to which the foregoing described plea is to be offered, and that the defendant has been advised of the defendant's right to plead not guilty and to be tried by a jury on all issues herein; of the maximum possible penalty provided by law; that by the entering of a plea of guilty as aforesaid, the defendant waives the right to be tried by a jury or by the Court, waives the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against the defendant and the right not to be compelled to incriminate the defendant; and that if the defendant pleads guilty, there will not be a further trial of any kind. Further, the defendant has been advised that if the defendant pleads guilty, the Court may ask questions about the offense to which the defendant has pleaded and that if the plea is rejected or later withdrawn, that the answers to such questions may not be used against the defendant in a civil or criminal proceeding, but that the defendant's answers may later be used against the defendant in a prosecution for perjury or false statement if the answers are not truthful.

8. The defendant understands that the U.S. Probation Office will prepare a presentence investigation report for the Court. Although the Court must consider the Guidelines as contained in the presentence report, the Guidelines are no longer mandatory and binding on the sentencing court but are now advisory. Notwithstanding, the Probation Officer will consider defendant's conduct related to the offense to which the plea is offered, as well as the defendant's criminal history. Considering the advisory nature of the Guidelines, the offense level or criminal history category, as calculated by the Probation Officer, may differ from that projected by defendant's counsel or the U.S. Attorney. In the event that the Court, relying on the Guidelines as advisory, decides to sentence the defendant within the statutory minimum and maximum, after considering 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and the Guidelines, and higher than the defendant anticipated, the defendant will have the right to withdraw the plea.

This 17th day of March, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
